

Do not over ride with a fed change, not for the FCC to change what the voters from the State of New Jersey now have. And just who are these telemarketers think they are to demand a change. This is a people choice from our great state!